These are some pictures of two girls - Sarah (6), and Anna (3). The first picture is Sarah doing her best "Stig" impersonation. They are practicing for the 2nd annual kids pedal car race at Autobahn the weekend after next. It's part of NASA's family day event held each year.

Cool,
I see they are ready pimping those sponsors!

B)

My 2 year old is not quite ready for the action, but she still like playing with cars.
