I just wanted to start this 'other' region from the great frozen white North. That would be Ontario, Canada. My wife will be soooo happy to hear that I now have another forum to 'time waste'. Seriously, thank you for creating our very own forum.

But Eric, your avatar clearly shows you in front, so I should be able to claim your car.:laugh: Just kidding! I never want to see a 'claim ' rule for us. I have nothing against the Midwest Region but I belong to Great Lakes Region.

Hope you and Doug have a great day tomorrow and grow the class some more.

Bill
