

Leaving for Ohio - Anyone need a car?

Posted by Salanis42 - 28 Sep 2013 15:19

Just wanted to throw out a query if there is anybody in need of a car. I'm moving to Ohio for a position at Columbus Brewing Company. I should have plenty of opportunities for racing out there, but it would be nice to not have to drag so much stuff across the country.

Any new drivers or anyone interested in my 924s? I've got a Ninja 250 I want to get rid of as well.
