What time is everyone getting there this weekend? Posted by BritRacer - 21 May 2014 20:35
Hi All,
What time are people arriving this weekend? I can't wait to finally take to the track at Thunderhill! I plan to leave the south bay around noon (when Hayden gets out of school).
Aubie, did you get a tow vehicle sorted? I hoped to see you out there.

I'm shooting for a pre-noon departure and hoping the traffic doesn't suck. I'll try to block off some room in the " free parking" area across from the toilets so we can use the power poles if I get there early enough.

Sounds great! If you can save us some space that would be awesome. Hopefully, we should not be up there too late. I assume you take the 680, 505, 5 route?
It would be nice to have a 944 "compound" with power.
