

944 Paddock at Nats?

Posted by dpRacing Dan - 23 Oct 2014 12:51

Hey guys, wasnt sure if everyone was planning on pitting together as a group. If so can you please save space for me? What time/day is everyone rolling?

I'll be arriving Thursday, not sure exactly what time.

We will be there with a 31ft RV too.

Hey Jason, will you be towing a trailer with RV? And is that an open or box trailer?

It will be a RV + open trailer. My wife will also be bring her car up Friday afternoon once the kids finish school. So it would be good to have space for her.

Do we have any idea how much space we have?

I havent seen a paddock map yet but most rows are 80' wide so plenty of room for an RV and trailer combined.

They may require all open trailers to be moved to the upper lot. That has yet to be determined.

In the past we have made a large area by lining the perimeter with the RVs and then having those without enclosed trailers park in the middle. That gives us a large area for group gatherings for meals and meetings.

Thanks for posting those videos Charlie! Much appreciate it. Never driven a 944 there so great reference.

I also didnt realize there was a half day option for testing, so am now trying to join you guys too.
