

Nationals

So what is everybody's plan for nationals? Do we want to caravan, and when is everyone planning on leaving? I was thinking Tuesday but could go monday. Wednesday seems to be cutting things close.

Also where are people staying?

By the way, I'm looking for some collars to mount to my rollcage to locate the harnesses, does anybody know where I can get these and what size?

i'm doing the test day wednesday, so i think we are leaving monday. staying monday night elko or winemucca. tuesday night and the rest of the week in SLC.

you can get the collars from mcmaster-carr in LA, i bought mine from their website, should be 1.5", split collar, aluminum.

Probably Running Mon/Tues - want to arrive no later than Lunch Tues. Plans are still up in the air as Tim is being called into work that week so won't be able to come out until Fri. Original plans were to arrive Monday and I'm still thinking of it.

Second response for Mcmaster-Carr

I'm leaving early Tuesday and driving straight through. I'll be staying at the track all week.

I'm practicing on Wednesday.

Whether we caravan or not, we should probably all have each other's cell numbers in case someone does get in trouble.

Maybe we can send them to Ken and he can distribute the list?

i think ken already has most of our cell phone numbers, that sounds good to me. if you haven't been to miller before, it's definitely worth the time to look at my videos on this forum. It'll show you one way around, maybe not the fastest one tho.
