no tech, all we need is the annual tech sticker? or is that just PRC. maybe we should check with kunzman on that. or is the tech sticker thing just PRC? i wish i paid attention in those driver's meetings.

If you have your annual tech sticker that's all you need. I fill out my logbook each time too - but that is really just for my record keeping.

Rick, just come on Sunday - no need to worry about Saturday.

All we need is the NASA annual tech, the other one was a PRC deal.

So who braved the rain for this past weekend's race? What was the outcome?
