Fantastic racing guys. Epic 944 weekend. If you missed it enjoy the Video's!

Norm was so smooth working through pack. Thanks for helping get us 12+ racers. Darren also made those crisp moves working traffic on way to front. (hope to see you racing and winning more)

Chuck Sharp made his first NASA race after coming from PCA and was running fast and clean with lead pack.

Ein and Mary have been turning up the pace and held their lines really well on inverted start. Man that was busy couple of laps.

Fun weekend, it was great seeing everyone and meeting the new 944s.

I posted my video of Sunday's reverse start. youtu.be/1U-onWPVeRs I chased Simon most of the race but could not get him to make a big enough mistake.

Hi, Gang of 944,

Here's my video of Sunday's inverted-grid race:

Thanks to everyone for making it a really fun weekend all round, and to Norm for keeping it all together!

Cheers,

It was great fun, camping, racing, food and camaraderie. So many newbies joining us for the first time.

JivanJim is kicking ass fast! I knew I was in trouble when

I offered him a cookie and he didn't eat it because it has sugar in it, now how in the heck do you beat somebody that doesn't even eat sugar??? New rule, you can't be a health nut and race in this class:)

Looking forward to more hard racing like this weekend, that's what it's all about!

Thanks to everybody that came out
