

944 Spec for Sale - Excellent Car

Posted by Greydog - 27 Aug 2009 04:41

Selling my 944 Spec that I built for myself. I own a professional race shop in Greenville, SC and built 4 Spec 944 cars for customers, that last one I built for myself. The car is beautiful, it was stripped completely clean and painted inside and out. It has a great custom welded cage, LS Diff, UltraShield seats (two were installed for instructing), FireCharger system, full Paragon products suspension, all new wear items were replaced in suspension, new rod bearings, baffle in oil pan, and the list goes on. The car is one of the cleanest and best. I am asking $15K. Give me a call at (864)414-3481 or email
