

Meet me at Road Atlanta!

Posted by Sterling Doc - 26 Feb 2013 14:37

Who's in for the Road Atlanta event?

I've been watching all the build parties at the Chicken Shack and enthusiasm for the class down there, and am coming down to pay you guys a visit. Let's talk about building the class, going fast, and having fun! Besides, I've got a track record to defend! I will be bringing my Traqmate down, and will be happy to share data as well.

Let's start a roll call here:

1. Eric
2. Michael
3. Brian
4. Jason
5. Duffy - making his race debut!
6. Victor

Add Duff "Duff Man" Duffy to your list, Eric- he'll be making his racing debut. RJ Schramm and Victor Kelly are probables.

Do you guys have the tools to put an LSD in a trans? We are looking for someone to do that around - no one around here does.

Give Michael a hammer, pry bar and monkey to assist him and he can do anything!

And if you can't find a monkey Fast Tater will do...

Flying Monkey! The Georgia boys are about to witness the beast built at the Tatershack.

Finishing up the conversion from alum arms to steel tonight. Mount the new CV joints and all that is left is a final bleeding of the brakes.

Sounds great, guys. I'm hoping to bring Gary with me, if he can get his new car ready in time.

Eric,

I cant wait to get all the guys at the track and to finally meet you in person. The SE is growing and I'm sure some input from you can only make it better.
